Ultra Pima -Rose Trellis Lace Vest

Designed by Vera Sanon

The vest is worked in one piece, knit from side to side. Both fronts are knit in the traditional and beautiful Rose Trellis lace pattern, the back is knit in stockinette stitch. Armhole openings are worked by binding off the necessary stitches and then cast on again in subsequent rows.

Sizes: S (M, L, XL)

Sizing is determined by width across the upper back, measured from under the arm to the other side, across the shoulder blades. The vest's back measures approx. 14 (16, 18, 20)" across. Sizing can be easily adjusted by trying on the vest once the first armhole has been worked to determine how many inches of stockinette should be worked before working the second armhole.

The overall length of the vest measures approx. 20" for size S, sizes M-XL measures approx. 24", from shoulders to bottom. If a shorter vest in larger sizes is desired, simply work 4 lace pattern repeats instead of 5 lace pattern repeats.

Each lace panel is worked in a 44 lace row repeat, for a total of 220 rows, approx. 30". To work a shorter front panel eliminate one 44-row repeat (6").

Note -

- (1) There is a YO before the ending sts of Rows 3, 21, and 39. The number of sts remains the same throughout.
- (2) It is useful to use stitch markers to place between the lace repeats to help to keep track of the lace pattern repeats, however, stitch markers have to be moved at times.
